

MARANATHA

STEP 1:

Choose a book of the Bible to Review

STEP 2:

Start at the beginning of the book, read about 200 words aloud from that book each time you gather. (This could be approximately a chapter or two depending on the book. A simple way to measure is to read the distance between your extended thumb and pinky when laid upon the page of an average sized bible. Choose the most logical stopping place within that range.)

STEP 3:

Use the Chart on the next page to write down any examples within the text where you see scriptures that discuss: God is, God Does, I am. I do. "I" means yourself or people in general.

STEP 4:

What insights and conclusions can you draw from this text after you have broken it down with this method?

In what way, big or small, can you apply this text to your own life this week?

STEP 5:

Close in prayer.

Ask if others have any prayer needs the group can pray for.
